THE ORATORY
PREP SCHOOL

Letter To Candidates

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the post of History Teacher at The Oratory Prep School. This is such an exciting time for the school, as it is a real opportunity to appoint the right teacher to the teaching team. The Oratory Prep School (The OPS) is an independent day and boarding school providing an enriched education to boys and girls aged 2 to 13. Benefiting from being part of the wider Bellevue Education group, we are committed to delivering exceptional teaching; combining the best of tradition with the latest innovations. Set within 65 acres of Oxfordshire countryside with outstanding facilities, we nurture happy, balanced, confident and inquisitive children.

The Oratory Prep School aims to provide the best possible education for its pupils. Staff are expected to maintain a very high standard of teaching and are provided with every support from the Headmaster and the Senior Leadership Team. We are seeking an enthusiastic, motivated Humanities Teacher to join our high performing team. The ideal candidate will contribute fully to school life at The Oratory Prep School and will have a genuine passion for teaching and learning. The role will involve teaching Geography and History, predominantly in the Senior Prep part of the school across Years 5-8. The post is also open to ECTs.

THE ORATORY PREP SCHOOL

Other duties include;

- Teaching scholarship candidates.
- Preparing pupils for examinations at 13+.
- Attending meetings within the school to share good practice and develop school and departmental policy.
- Assisting in the evaluation and development of the Geography and History curriculum in the Senior Prep part of the school.
- Working with the Head of Faculty and the Director of Studies on the preparation and marking of examination papers and analysis of results.
- Involvement in the life of the whole school community, including providing sessions for The Newman Programme and the school's thriving activities programme.
- Any reasonable requests that the Headmaster or Senior Leadership Team may make.

Should you wish to apply for this post, please include a covering letter and a completed Application form. Please read through the job description, person specification and visit our website to get a flavour of our school. If you feel you would enjoy the challenge and rewards of working at The Oratory Prep School, I would be pleased to receive your application. It is very important that the statement in support of your application (found in the application form) does not re-state details included elsewhere in the application but addresses:

- why you are applying for the post of Humanities Teacher at The Oratory Prep School
- the Job Description and Person Specification

Please note that references will be sought for all candidates.

Please complete the application form and send, together with a covering letter, to Human Resources, The Oratory Prep School at humanresources@oratoryprep.co.uk. We may interview and appoint before the closing date, so early applications are encouraged.

Good luck!

Mr Andrew De Silva
Headmaster

Advert: Humanities Teacher

Do you believe that all children have the potential to make more than expected progress? If so, please read on...

We are seeking to appoint a fantastic Humanities Teacher to join our teaching team. The Oratory Prep School (OPS) has a fantastic local and national reputation as one of the country's leading prep schools, which educates children from 2 – 13. As you can imagine, our fantastic teachers and superb resources and facilities provide our children with unique opportunities, and our staff with wonderful tools to support learning. You may be an experienced teacher or seeking your first teaching post as an ECT. You may also currently work in the state sector or the independent sector. We are looking for the right person to contribute to our children, our team and the wider school family.

The pupils at The Oratory Prep School are absolutely delightful and are enthusiastic learners. Parental support is very strong and the Governing Body (Bellevue Education) is committed to improving outcomes and experiences for our children.

We are looking for someone who is:

- Excellent in the classroom, with an outstanding ability to engage and enthuse children
- Able to challenge, support and motivate all children to achieve high standards
- Open to new ideas and willing to commit to new initiatives
- Eager to take a full and active part in all aspects of our school community
- An excellent communicator with pupils, parents and staff
- Naturally positive and a fun team player – with a great sense of humour!

In return, we can offer you the opportunity to:

- Teach well behaved, highly motivated children who are keen to develop their own learning
- Work within a school community that is proud of its achievements and well-motivated to continue to develop further
- Work within a supportive team
- Regular non-contact time
- Great professional development tailored to fit your needs

The Headmaster, Mr De Silva, would be delighted to talk to potential candidate about the school and about the role. To visit the school/speak to Mr De Silva, please contact our HR department via humanresources@oratoryprep.co.uk. Please use the same email address to receive an application pack.
